Mrs. Wright was the last survivor and the youngest of the family of her distinguished father, Rev. John Strange, an eminent divine of the M. E. Church in the early days of Methodism in Ohio and Indiana, whose powerful eloquence as a pulpit orator and exhorter made him famous and the spiritual fruit of whose labors in the Master's vineyard still survives him to his own honor and the glory of "Him who Surviving Mrs. Wright are all her children, in number-Mrs. Frances Elia Losey, residn Kansus; John S., Alice C., Anna L. and Willis Harvey, of Indianapolis, and Otto, of Chattanooga, Tenn.-three grand children and three great-grandchildren, together with her two half brothers, Charles H. Thompson, of Chicago, and Edward P. Thompson, of Indianapelis. Mrs. Wright being the stepdaughter of Judge John H. Thompson, one of the early pioneers of Indiana, and prominent in State affairs, by whom she was reared from her seventh year and by when she was educated. Her girlhood days were passed in Charlestown and Salem, and her young womanhood in Indianapolis in her home on Market street, where the postoffice building now stands.

After the death of her mother, Mrs. Ruth Waller Strange Thompson, she was united in marriage to Mr. Wright June 12, 1851, by Rev. Mr. Hull, of Robert's Chapel, of which church At this time Mr. Wright was a leading dry ods merchant of Indianapolis, with a store located on the site of the present Odd Fellows' building, being a widower with two children-Julia, now Mrs. B. F. Goodhart, of Indianapolis, and Charles E. Wright, deceased, who became an eminent physician and at his leath in 1893 was superintendent of the Indiana Insane Asylum. Mrs. Wright in early life connected herself with the M. E. church and dedicated her heart to the service of the Lord, and all who knew her ved her for her beautiful Christian character and for the example she gave of a pure, noble, earnest and simple life, a life which was given more for those she loved and all others than or herself; and she ever strived to do her taker's will in all things. Her sphere of inuence was within the doors of her own home, and there she was potential and strong. patriotism and love of country and the old flag was a rel'gion with her. Not only was Mrs. Wright endowed with personal comeliness and charms to a generous degree, but she possessed soul loveliness, mental beauty and a habit of sowing seeds of kindness and planting and cultivating rare flowers in the garden of her thoughts made the journey of life for her easy and all the views along the pathway most beautiful. In the latter years of her life she passed through the valley of disease and there came to heart at times sorrows of vital moment, and her life was darkened by clouds and rainy days and depths of gloom; but during all the long and weary years that she quaffed unkind Fate's bitter tonic, without complaint and devoid of rebellious thoughts, she sweetly smiled across the cup.

FATHER OF THE GROUPS

PRESIDENT INGALLS DID THE FIRST MERGING OF RAILWAYS.

The Sale of the Wiggins Ferry Property at St. Louis Causes Lively Competition for Control.

There were portions of the address of President Ingalis, a few days ago, in Chicago, which were not published in the report, in which many points of interest failed to reach the eyes of readers. Among other things, he said: "I claim to be the father 'skinned,' rates were cut, no money was made. The Western roads were chips in st. not properties at all. I was running the Chesapeake & Ohio, and, with five other presidents, attempted to agree. We never could, or, if we did, the agreements were broken. The community-of-interests-ingroups system solved the problem. Rates now are good; no man in the United States is mean enough to cut them. Roads out here are looked upon as good investments, E. C. DE HAVEN & SON, 442 Massachusetts av. in the way the New England roads long have been. I believe in community of interests by groups. There are natural groupsthe Pennsylvania, the New York Central, here the Atchison, the Northwestern, Hill's road and so forth. The Vanderbilts are not pushing; the Pennsylvania is satisfied; | yesterday. I should think 'Jim' Hill ought to be content. Groups keep up rates, but provide for competition; merger will solve no present evils and will bring us new ones.'

The Wiggins Ferry Deal. The latest development in the direction of a merging of interests of transportation companies is that of the sale of the Wiggins ferry at St. Louis. This company owns belt lines on both the east and west sides of the Mississippi river, quite a large area of real estate in East St. Louis, and car ferry lines operating on the river. Its business is the switching of cars between connections, and it operates in competition with the Terminal Railroad Association, which owns the only two bridges spanning the river at St. Louis. Its capital stock is $1,000,000, and its shares, which are $100, par value, have been selling about 230. Recent reports from St. Louis indicate that parties connected with a trust company and with the management of the Wiggins Ferry Company have effected a sale at $500 a share. It is not known who the purchasers are, but it is thought likely that the Atchison may be behind the deal. An opposition to the sale has developed, another Richmond being in the field, and it is not now certain that the control of the property can be secured and delivered. As a result of the competition for the property stockholders are being offered from $600 to SSOO a share for their holdings. It is exprected that it will be known within a few days which interest has secured the prop-

The months ago. petition was filed by the Mercantile Trust Company, which is reported to have secured an option on a majority of the stock at $500 a share. The contest between the Mississippi Valley and Mercantil Trust companies to secure control of the property of the Wiggins Ferry Company was brought to a partial focus on Monday, says a dispatch from St. Louis, when Alonzo C. Church, vice president of the Ferry Company issued a statement to the effect that the sale of a majority of the stock had not been effected, and further, that the agreement purported to have been made by the Mercantile Trust Company with the Ferry Company stockholders was not binding. Vice President Breckinridge Jones, of the Mississippi Valley Trust Company declared to-day that the control of the Wiggins Ferry Company stock had not passed. "We have been advised," he said, "by the most eminent legal counsel in the city that none of the Wiggins Ferry stockholders are bound by the agreement to sell to the Mercantile Trust Company at $500 a share. The figure on the stock named is purely an option, which the Mercantile Trust Company obtained and can be withdrawn at any time until the final negotiations are closed. We are paying $600 a share for the stock."

Festus J. Wade, president of the Mercantile Trust Company, said: "I hold that the Mercantile Company has a majority of the Wiggins Ferry stock. We have not met, nor will we meet, the price offered by the Mississippi Valley Trust Company, namely, $600 a share, but will pay $500 and no more for all that is offered. We have bought the controlling interest and it is unnecessary for us to raise the price already named.' A dispatch from Kansas City says: "It is the opinion of local railroad men generally that the Santa Fe Railway is the buyer of the St. Louis, Kansas City & Colorado Railroad and the Wiggins Ferry. At first it was believed that the extension into Kansas City of the new road would be over the 'Frisco system tracks. Now it is stated that the road will connect with the Santa Fe near Sibley, Mo., and come into Kansas

City over Santa Fe terminals."

Alleged Discrimination. Merchants and manufacturers of Chicago have united in a strong protest to the Interdiscrimination in transcontinental rates. It is charged that by the rates made Chicago manufacturers are placed in competition with New York for Pacific coast trade and for trade west of the Rockies. Attention is called to the fact that equal rates from President Woodford, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, has contracted for ten locomotives for fast-freight service and two passenger engines, the heaviest ever purchased by that company, all to be delivered in September. The company has also contracted for 100 additional coal cars, making the last order 300. The recent test of the high-speed airbrake of the Westinghouse Company has proved so satisfactory-a special train running eighty miles an hour being stopped in 600 feet-that the board of directors of the Pennsylvania has authorized an appropriation for equipping all of its passenger trains with the improved brake. Andrew Carnegie takes much pride in the fact that he was the first to recommend a steel rail weighing 100 pounds to the yard, and it was introduced against rulings of most traffic managers. This was when he was working for a salary on the Pennsylvania. Now the Pennsylvania, the state-commerce Commission against alleged | New York Central, the Lake Shore and several other important lines where traffic is heavy are laying rails weighing 100 pounds to the yard.

Mr. Peters says the company's new engines are arriving, and they will soon be in shape to handle all business offered.

The committee appointed to adjust summer tourist rates between Chicago and Minneapolis have fixed upon $16 for the round trip, and from Kansas City to Minneapolis, the first fifteen days of June, July, August and ten days of September, will be $12.25, which is $1.35 less than the regular fare one way. The Chicago Great Western had named a rate of $13.50 round trip from Chicago to Minneapolis, but it is thought will fall in line on the $16 rate. A member of the railroad committee of the Legislature of Massachusetts is drafting a bill to be presented to the next House giving the New York. New Haven & Hartford authority to lease its lines to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. An impression prevails that if there is anything accomplished in this direction the property will be controlled in much the same manner that the Pennsylvania controls the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Norfolk &

Western.

The freight congestion of the Pennsylvania at Pittsburg is still troublesome. An official of the road says it is simply | $200 due to the overwhelming growth of business, and the company is doing all in its | $800. power to relieve the situation. Thus far this month the volume of trade has been highly satisfactory in most lines. An easy money market, contrary to expectation during taxpaying time, aiding the situation. In prices there were no important changes. Provisions are very firm special on the Louisville division on May at the revision of Monday and are fast movers, this line affording a very good variety when fresh meats rule as high as at present.
